TRIP TO HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT

BY

KENNETH LEVITT

6/24/84 THE HARTFORD CIVIC CENTER, HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT

Salvatore Bellomo W. Pete Doherty (This match had a lot of action, with Bellomo starting things off. He gave Doherty a couple of Dropkicks, sending him out of the ring, onto the arena floor. Doherty gained his compusure and then entered the ring. He started to get rough, by kicking Bellomo in the mid-section a couple of times. He then applied a very good Full Nelson. Salvatore fell out of the ring on to the arena floor. When Salvatore re-gained his composure, he entered the ring furiously. He started bitting Pete on the forehead, and then did everything he could think of, to weaken Doherty. The finale of this match occurred, when Salvatore executed a Mule Dropkick and then pinned Pete, with no trouble. After the official decision was announced, Doherty got upset and complained to the referee about his opponent, Bellomo, but the decision stood as it was announced. Salvatore, then, left the ring as the proud victor, in this hard fought battle. Both Salvatore and Pete looked good in mat action.)

Jay Strongbow W. George Steele (This match had a lot of wild action, with both athletes doing everything they could think of to down the other. All during this wild encounter, Steele was as wild as ever. He bit Jay on the forehead and tried to choke him. Jay, during this insane match, was no angel, either. He gave Steele a very good Tomahawk Chop to the mid-section, that sent him to the mat floor. The end of this wild encounter came, when Jay chased George out of the ring, onto the arena floor. Jay, then, re-entered the ring. The referee sent Jay to his corner. Steele, then, came into the ring with a chair. Steele tried to hit Jay with it. Strongbow ducked out in the nick of time. The chair rammed off the corner turnbuckle, and hit Steele in the head, sending him to the mat floor. Jay seeing his opponent on the mat floor, wasted no time, and hooked his leg for the pin. Jay, then,, left the ring, to the roar of the fans.)

Bob Backlund DREW Greg Valentine (This match was nothing short of excellent. Bob Started things off with a couple of Take Downs, and then executed a very good Full Nelson. Bob, also, gave Greg a kick to the back. He then went to work on Valentine's arm. Bob tried a Back Bridge Pin, but Greg was able to push out. Greg started to get dirty, and rough, by coming off the top ring rope, with an elbow to the shoulder. Greg, then, went to work on Backlund's arm. The finale of this wild bout occurred as follows: Bob was in his corner by the turnbuckle. Greg, then, came charging at Bob, but missed him because he moved out of the way. He then hit the turnbuckle. Backlund, then, attacked Greg's arm and started to pull it. Bob, then, put Greg against the ring ropes, put his hand around the top ring rope, and started to kick it. The bell, then, rang to signal that the time limit had expired. The referee declared this match a time limit draw. During this wild match, both Bob & Greg looked in very good shape.)

David Shultz W. Tony Garea (During this match each athlete did everything in his power to defeat the other. During this match, Shultz gave Garea a good Take Down and gouged Tony's eyes. Garea executed a very good Back Body Drop and tried to pin him, but Shultz was able to kick out. The end of this match occurred, when Garea whipped Shultz into the corner turnbuckle. Tony tried to ram him, but Shultz lifted his knee and Garea went into it. Tony then fell to the mat floor and Shultz pinned him. Both athletes looked good in mat action.)

The Wild Samoans #1 (Afa) & #2 (Sika) W. Mr. Fuji & Tiger Chung Lee (During this wild and insane match, both teams looked in good Shape. The end of this match had a weird ending. Lee walked over to his corner to tag his partner, Fuji, but he would not tag him. Fuji, then, who was standing on the outside ring apron, pushed Lee into one of The Samoans. Fuji, then, left for the dressing room. Lee, was then, left in the ring, alone to do battle, with the Two Samoans. Afa, then, took advantage of the situation, and hooked Lee's leg, for a pinning combination.)

Roddy Piper W. Rocky Johnson (Rocky started things off, with everything he could think of. Piper started to get the upper hand by using every dirty trick he could think of. At the end of this wild encounter, Piper came off the ropes and just before he got to Johnson, his knees fell to the mat floor. Rocky then, came charging at him, but Piper caught him by the ankles and then took him down to the mat floor. Piper picked up Johnson's legs. Johnson's, Shoulder were on the mat, and piper pinned him. While piper was pinning him, he was holding onto the ring ropes. The referee was unaware of this and took the three count. Rocky, then, complained to the referee, but the decision stood as announced, "A win for Piper". Both Rocky & Roddy looked good in mat action.)

Bob Orton, Jr. D.DQ. Ivan Putski (Bob was disqualified for striking the referee. Everybody in the arena thought that Ivan won this match, but when the referee regained his composure, Putski got angry that Orton was disqualified, because he wanted to continue to fight him. Putski, then, took his anger out on the referee, by striking him, too. The official had no choice, but to disqualify Ivan, just as well, making this match a double disqualification. Both Bob and Ivan looked good throughout the entire match.)

Brian Blair W. Rene Goulet (Both athletes looked good in mat action. The finale of this match went as follows: Blair came off the ropes and Goulet tried to hit him with his loaded glove, but Blair was able to duck out of the way. Brian, then, executed a Small Package Cradle and pinned him.)

Sgt. Slaughter W. The Iron Sheik (Steel Cage Match: This match was a wild and bloody encounter, with both athletes bleeding from their foreheads. During this wild encounter, the rule book was thrown out, because both athletes acted like wild and hungry lions, doing everything they could think of, to defeat the other. The Sheik used his Curved Iranian boot on Slaughter. The Sarge used his riding crop on The Mad Iranian. During this bout, both The Sheik and The Sarge tried to climb over the top of the cage, but could not. The finale of this very wild and insane match, came off as follows: Both men were bleeding at this point very badly. The Sheik, took off his Curved Iranian boot and hit Slaughter two times with it, and dropped the boot on him. The Sheik then tried to get out of the cage, but The Sarge caught his foot and pulled him back in. Both men, then, got up off the mat floor. The Sarge executed a clothesline on The Sheik. Slaughter, then, got a hold of the Iranian's Curved boot and hit him two times with it. The Sarge, then, started to crawl to the door of the cage. Half way out of the door, The Sheik caught Slaughter, but The Sarge was able to kick The Sheik off, and The Sarge fell out of the cage onto the arena floor. The Sarge struggled to get to his feet. When he finally re-gained his composure, the referee who was standing out, outside of the ring all during this insane match raised Slaughter's hands in a token of victory, to the roar of the fans. Slaughter, then, got the microphone, and started chanting the words "U.S.A. IS NUMBER ONE". The Sarge left for the dressing room, the proud victor. Both The Sarge and The Sheik looked good in mat action. This was, indeed, another torrid chapter, in this never ending "U.S.A. VS. IRAN FEUD". In the opinion of this writer, this has to go down as one of the wildest and bloody matches I have ever witnessed.)
